

The Restaurant: The Whites Dragons ARTURO

"The Whites Dragons" is the name of a Japanese Restaurant. The restaurant is very big, It has got a long yard with style of Orient. The restaurant has got very oriental chairs and the food is "fantastic". You can eat bats, rats, snakes...

The tables have got a grill to roast the rice, the meat and the fish. The cook's name is Sakura and she ~~does~~ not works in the ^{kitchen} cook. The cook does this in front of the people. The restaurant is expensive. I love statues of Dragons.

The dragon's legend was a monster with ^{the} form of a reptile, with wings, big claws, tail of snake and breath of fire.
